Dear President Biden:

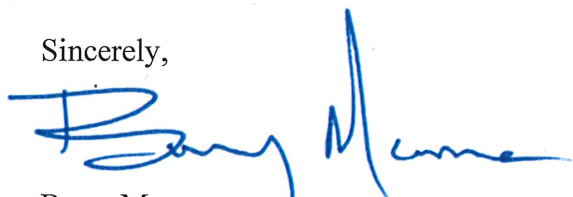

I write to request your support in ordering a new trial for Major Clarence Anderson III, whose military court-martial was allegedly plagued with unlawful influence and prosecutorial misconduct.

As you may know, on April 22, 2015, Major Anderson was convicted of sexual assault and other related charges in a general court-martial trial. Since his conviction, Major Anderson has maintained his innocence and produced accounts of alleged bribery, evidence suppression, and witness tampering throughout his court-martial, military appeal, and Federal appeal.

The Air Force Inspector General has reviewed the case; however Major Anderson has produced documentation that he believes prove wrongdoing. I respectfully request that you considering ordering a new trial to ensure that Major Anderson is presented with a chance to prove his innocence.

I am confident that your support would help bring about a timely conclusion to Major Anderson's efforts. If you or your staff have questions regarding this request, please do not hesitate to contact my Chief of Staff, Shana Teehan, at 202-225-2901.

Sincerely,

Barry Moore
U.S. Representative
